ABOUT

A stirring testament to the strength of the human spirit and the power of music, Violins of Hope comprise a collection of instruments that tell remarkable stories of the defiance, resilience, and legacy of Jewish musicians during the Holocaust and of the Israeli violinmaker dedicated to bringing these inspirational Strings of the Holocaust back to life.

FOUNDER

Amnon Weinstein has spent the last two decades locating and restoring violins that were played by Jewish musicians during the Holocaust. He dedicates this important work to 400 relatives he never knew, all of whom were murdered during the Holocaust.

After becoming one of the most respected violinmakers in the world, Amnon started locating violins that were played by Jews in the camps and ghettos, painstakingly piecing them back together so that they could be brought to life again on the concert stage. The voices and spirits of those who owned them live on through these Violins of Hope.

VIOLINS OF HOPE FORT WAYNE

The Violins of Hope will be in Fort Wayne from November 9-23. Through a series of concerts, visual arts, theater, public conversations, interfaith dialogue, readings, and educational activities, their stories will be heard throughout the community.
