Dear Friends:

I invite you to share a journey with me and your Fort Wayne Philharmonic as we take you on a musical exploration through genres and places around the world. The 2022-23 season is filled with adventuresome music where fates and destinies often coincide but always hang in the air.

Time-honored masterpieces and contemporary greats by Stravinsky, Tchaikovsky, Beethoven, Prokofiev, Copland, and Gershwin fill the season. You will not want to miss the larger-than-life performance of Carmina Burana. World renowned pianist, Yefim Bronfman takes on the lush melodies and daunting challenges of Rachmaninoff. We debut a new piece by locally born composer Patrick O'Malley and introduce contemporary composer, Anna Clyne. We will also take you to South America with performances of Latin themed works by Ginastera, JP Jofre and Piazzolla featuring the unique accordion-like instrument – the bandoneon. The season wraps up in Paris with an evening dominated by the genius of Gershwin.

The Pops Series will be loaded with everything from heroes to classics. We open the season performing "Superhero Soundtrack," then make holiday memories with Fort Wayne's favorite tradition, our Holiday Pops. Ann Hampton Callaway will give tribute to the Streisand Songbook, and we'll hear the group "Go Now" honor the great rock tunes of the Moody Blues. And finally, I am excited to wrap up the Series conducting Classic Broadway with Broadway greats and dear friends, Doug LaBrecque and Lisa Vroman.

Elsewhere, fun Family and Chamber Orchestra concerts round out the season and our Freimann chamber music series will celebrate the works of women composers with a captivating mix of repertoire.

Thank you for supporting world-class music and your talented Fort Wayne Philharmonic musicians. These amazing programs would not be possible without your unwavering support. The Fort Wayne Philharmonic is so fortunate to have the power of this tremendous community behind it. This year, you can support in more ways than one. Choose to give a gift today with your subscription renewal and join me for a Director's Toast event on May 14, 2022.

We look forward to going with you on this amazing ride this Season.
